

As a listener of K-Love and do not want to see them off the air due to the change of stations. I love the fact that K-love is involved in the community and is there for anybody who may need assistance. K-love provides many services to their listeners that no other radio stations give. If they are off the air, I believe that we may lose a few souls that could have been helped if K-Love stays on.